UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

Case No. 06CV2753W(JMA)

PROTECTIVE ORDER

OFELIA RODRIGUEZ, et al.,

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiffs,

Defendants.

et al.,

ORDER

Good cause having been shown for a protective order pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c)(1)(F), the Court orders as follows:

The deposition of United States Border Patrol Agent Andrew Kahl is to be maintained under seal. The parties will so advise the court reporter, and videographer (if any), and request them to distribute the transcript, its exhibits and any video record of the deposition, to counsel in a sealed envelope. After review and signature by the witness, the transcript, its exhibits, and any video of the deposition will be securely maintained by counsel in a sealed envelope.

The transcript, its exhibits, and any video of the deposition shall be subject to this Court's Protective Order of December 19, 2007. The transcript, its exhibits and any video of the deposition shall be disclosed only as allowed in that Protective Order, except that the disclosure allowed in paragraph 3(d) shall not apply. Any expert, investigator or consultant to whom the deposition is provided under Protective Order paragraph 3(c) shall be informed that the transcript, its exhibits, and any video of the deposition are to be securely maintained in a sealed envelope and that these items are otherwise subject to this Court's December 19, 2007 Protective Order.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED: May 20, 2008
